ABOUT A TURNPIKE ELECTION.

Editor Public Ledger: As indicated last week, the election for officers of the Cabin Creek and Springdale Turnpike Company, called for the last Saturday in and O. Railway, only $7 25. Equally April, has been held, so say the brainy as low rates to intermediate and points triumvirate who have for several years beyond. manipulated the machine and used the county proxy to break the head of the only creditors of the concern, to the detriment of the county's interests, to the hurt of honest stockholders, and who have run the road down to its present wretched condition and slightly watered the stock, as a glance at the books will

Last year a part of the stockholders held at the County Judge's office in the city of Maysville on a certain day, but the hour was not named. One at least of the stockholders was at said office from 10 a. m. until 1:30 p. m., when he was informed by one of the triumvirate that the election had been held. When asked State National Bank when and where he answered, "Awhile ago in the Judge's office." The interested party knew that could not be so unless the affair had taken place between the minutes of 12:15 and 1 o'clock p. m. at which time the Judge and all other good people should have been at dinner.

This year a part of the stockholders were notified that the election would be held at Springdale on the 30th of April,

but the hour was not named, but at this time and place another interested party who had not been notified layed for the trio, and more fortunate than he of the former experience located the wily conspirators—caught them as it were, in the Geo. M. Clinger & Son, very act. This happened between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock a. m., of the day mentioned, in an upstairs bedroom under the roof of G. M. Tolle's storeroom. When interrogated by the detective as to where the turnpike meeting was to be held, in evident confusion, one of the trio, who, by the way, presumes to figure prominently in church affairs, replied, "You're too late, too late; the thing's all over; you're too late." But this way of putting it did not satisfy this earnest seeker after light and knowledge, who wanted especially to know why the unreasonableness of the hour, and obscurity of the place. The answer to this, by this same prominent party, was, "I wanted to go to Maysville to-day and I wanted it over before I went:" There were all great big "i's."

It was several months after the election last year before anyone not in the ring could find out anything concerning the receipts and expenditures for the previous year, but at last it was developed that, notwithstanding the fact of nicely increased receipts, there was a deficit of some $40.

Persistent inquiry on the part of this seeker after truth failed to elicit an answer as to who were made Directors at this so-called meeting of the stockholders, or what the amount of money received and expended during the past five years, and what for; but the fact was brought out that the company's books were not present, and that any minutes of the peting that had been made were re-reded on the blank side of a sheet of G. M. Tolle's wrapping paper, the reverse side of which warrants all goods sold and

John A. Abby, Pastor of Quinn Chapel, A. M. E. Church, Louisville, has been suspended for conduct unbecoming a Christian and insubordination. The District Conference of A. M. E. Church was in session last week. The question of the salary of Presiding Elder Morrow came up. A proposition was made by the Rev. A. A. Hill, Pastor of St. James Church, that each member be assessed ten cents to pay him. Dr. Abby strenuously opposed this.

A vote was taken, and the motion of Mr. Hill was adopted. Then Dr. Abby arose will be at least the full amount of the re- and declared that neither he nor any of 20 cents per bolt. Mr. Hill told Dr. Abby that he ought to same officers, so called, of the Cabin be ashamed of himself. Then the Pastor Mr. Hill fell to the floor. Then Mr. Hill's son knocked Dr. Abby down. The ennot the other ministers interfered. Dr. Abby was hustled out of the church.

The next day Presiding Elder Morrow announced that the next quarterly meeting would be held in the Chapel. Dr. Abby said it should not. The Presiding Elder appointed a committee of five, who suspended Dr. Abby. The story has just got out. Dr. Abby says Dr. Morrow has caused all the trouble because he wants to be Pastor of Quinn Chapel. This church held a meeting and decided to stand by its Pastor,
